"Wind from the South," a 24"x36" oil by Carmel artist Peter Cost, is in the private collection of Mr. and Mrs. James Frew of Burlingame. The value of Peter Cost's talent is recognized by a major art magazine, for they have chosen one of his paintings to appear on the cover of their publication. (See the Peter Cost story and photographs on page 6.)

New Budget Format Shown

Dr. Melvin Steckler, a special consultant to the City to study the streamlining of our municipal government operations, met with the City Councilmen last night to propose what he considered a more easily understood budget format.

Dr. Steckler said his main point of the evening was to show the merits of considering Cost and Benefit collectively rather than separately.

The consultant likened the City's present budget to a "non-programmed" format organized for accountability. He presented the councilmen with a new "planning" format which would make it easy for the officials, at budget time, to see department totals immediately without having to analyze every detail and then collect them under one heading, as they must do presently.

With a pasted up model of the new system, provided by City Clerk Hugh Bayless, Mayor Steve Grant was able to, "on the spot" calculate what expenses went where and in what percentage: Public Works 43%; Culture 20%; Planning 1 1/2%; and so forth.

Art Plaxton, City treasurer, confessed it "might possibly work"; Herbert Blanks said, "It would be good to give it to us as a supplement to the regular format," and William Sefton voiced his support to Blanks' statement.

Hugh Bayless reminded the councilmen that during the last budget session, questions were asked of him that he could not answer immediately without research. He felt that with the aid of this new format, many of the answers would be readily at hand. Bayless said that he will take next year's preliminary budget and "get out my scissors and paste . . . I'm going to paste up another one just like this one."

The Officers of the Association will be announced at the installation banquet November 30 at the Beach Club.

Residential Zoning to be Modified

The City of Carmel-by-the-Sea recognizes that certain motel uses have existed for about 30 years in the residential district of the City . . .

... that demands to eliminate said uses have been made in the past but that little formal action to abate them has been initiated . . .

... that it would be inequitable to abate said uses after subsequent purchasers have bought the properties at high prices based upon their use . . .

... that recent expansions of said motel uses have been noted by the City and the City desires to prohibit further expansion while maintaining the status quo . . .

... that it would be appropriate that this use be permitted in the areas in which they presently exist, providing there is no further expansion in either area or use and providing all use, remodeling, reconstruction and alterations shall be permitted on a conditional use permit basis, granted by the Board of Adjustments.

These are the reasons the City Council gave for enacting the proposed ordinance permitting limited motel use in the R-1 district under the use permit.

After the entire ordinance was read at the Thursday evening City Council meeting, Mayor Steve Grant asked for public hearings on the question that has been plaguing the City for the past year.

The attorney for a number of the so-called "illegal" motels, George Walker, appeared before the Council to commend the city bodies for their action, and said that his clients are in favor of the ordinance because "it will finally set them clear on their positions."

Walker did, however, feel uneasy about one of the most important protective features of the ordinance; the 1500 square feet per unit reconstruction restriction imposed. He felt that, in many cases, if the motel had to be rebuilt or reconstructed, totally or partially, for any reason, the size of the units would be reduced in many cases.

Under the date of November 7, Carmel citizen Leslie Gross wrote the council members. Essentially, his letter emphasized this paragraph from it: "It is my opinion that the said ordinance is unconstitutional because it is ambiguous, arbitrary, discriminating, unreasonable, serves no useful purpose to the City, is in violation of the intent of the Planning Act of the State of California, is contrary to the General plan of the City, would create a monopoly for those property owners permitted motels, and constitutes spot zoning. It appears that remedial action could result in extreme damage to the character of the residential district and lower the monetary values of the motels in the commercial district."

Mr. Gross stood before the Council to reiterate his views which were in part recognized by attorney William Burleigh who suggested a modification of the time period for reconstruction improvements.

Gross said that the ordinance should be returned to the Planning Commission for

Acolades for "Mikado" at Circle

"Three Little Maids from School" . . . "A Wandering Minstrel I . . ." "The Flowers that Bloom in the Spring. Tra-la" and of course Ko-Ko's heart rending "Tit-willow, tit-willow, tit-willow" . . . these unforgettable tunes, favorites of our grandparents, were ringing in my ears as we left the gala opening performance of "The Mikado" at the Circle Theatre on Friday night.

As promised by the Circle's manager-director Norman McPhee and guest-director Kermit Herd (Pittsburgh Penn. Light Opera Company) and all-star cast of Golden Bough Players sang, danced and cavorted through the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta.

This reviewer finds it difficult to single out a "best performer" — but certainly Carmel's Robert Heater as Ko-Ko, Lord High Executioner deserves laurels for his superb sense of broad comedy and timing through eight vocal numbers and much "trippingly on the tongue" dialogue. Particularly hilarious was his duet with "Katisha" dramatically interpreted by mezzo-soprano, Pauli Woodbury.

Tenor Lex North as "Nanki-Poo" with soprano Harriet Bird as his "Yum Yum" carried the romantic love story with exquisite harmony.

John Hicks, magnificently costumed as the "Mikado" leered and laughed and sang with chilling conviction while Allan Weinfield as the sneering scheming "Pooh Bah" won side-shaking laughter. The Rev. Lloyd Johnston of All Saints Episcopal Church as "Pish Tush" won a round of applause following his solo, "Our Great Mikado" . . . Patricia Horsey as "Pitti Sing" was a delight to look upon as well as to listen to, and the beautiful Joyce Malikoff as "Peep-Bo" was equally superb.

The Ladies and Gentlemen of Japan were marvelous and included: Lillian White, Florence Larsen, Sally Reichard, Kim Rowley, Beverly Blair, Michael Roberts, and Russell Donaldson.

Ingenious set designer William Lewis provided the Circle with a workable, yet amazingly attractive stage, a difficult task for anyone working with Theatre in the Round.

Lollie Schwabe, accompanist, received a standing ovation for her beautiful work at the piano.

Theatre Review

TO SIR, WITH LOVE reminds you of what really warm good movies are like. It is a beautiful movie and perfect from top to bottom with a lot of mod action.

"THE TAMING OF THE SHREW", a comedy by Shakespeare, has had audiences laughing for almost 400 years. The shrew is evil-tempered Katharina. In the motion picture version, Elizabeth Taylor is the shrew. And the man who tames her, Petruchio, is played by Richard Burton.

DON'T LOOK BACK is the most effective presentation of the reality of contemporary youth attitudes. It is also one of the best portraits of a performing artist to be shown publicly. The film is truth. The film covers Dylan's concerts in England. He is shown singing from others of his best songs, including "Gates of Eden", etc.

TONY ROME, rarely has a metropolitan area been utilized so thoroughly by a motion picture production unit as Greater Miami in Tony Rome. There are sixty-five actual locations ranging all the way from the flop houses to luxury hotels and from trailer parks to palatial mansions.

BECKETT is a story of Henry II and his religious counselor. There was continuous religious conflict as to the domination of religion or the king.

WATERHOLE #3. This is the wild, wild West where the bad guys win and the good girls lose. A rootin', tootin', shootin' but SINCERE picture shot in the sleepy California desert town of Mojave once the site of a fabulous goldmine in 1860.

COOL HAND LUKE. Paul Newman hates the establishment and general lack of communication with everything he's got in this Warner Bros. release and says it in a powerful, emotional way. A prisoner of a southern chain gang and a prisoner who rebels against his jailers and any system that seeks to limit his personal freedom.

DR. ZHIVAGO. The screen version of Pasternak's novel, has a script by Robert Bolt but while beautiful and long, it lacks dramatic vitality. Also prominent in this row.

Once the committee submits their recommendations, maybe the traffic entering and exiting Carmel will be a bit less disruptive of residential areas.

City TV Cable?

Consideration of an Alarm Corp. proposal for a new television cable was continued until Nov. 15, so that possibilities of a municipal operation could be explored. City Attorney Burleigh said that at last week's City Attorneys Association meeting, it was brought out that this could be done a lower cost to subscribers and result in city revenue.

An ordinance prohibiting drinking in public places was given its second reading, as was one requiring drinking and dining establishments to provide toilet facilities for exclusive use of patrons and employees only.

Dick Catlin's Celebrity, his Trans-Pac 40-foot sloop, took the last of the Monterey Peninsula Yacht Club championship races, however he was not competing since he had entered only two of the races.

Lloyd Womble's 36-foot sloop Sayonara came in third, but she took the 1967

Later Prydwen, an Excalibur 27 co-owned by Pat Patterson, and Poco a Poco, a Columbia Challenger owned by Bill Clapper of Carmel, came in. Osborne-Sajac Wedding

Congratulations are in order for Charles Devens Osborne II of Pebble Beach who was married at St. Peter's Church in Oakland to Miss Virginia Sajac on Saturday. Reverend Robert Morse, former headmaster and chaplain of York School, performed the ceremony.

Virginia is the daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Charles S. Sajac of Rio Vista. Graduate of Santa Catalina School, she attended the University of California at Davis and now is attending the UC at Berkeley.

Charles is the son of Mrs. Will Shaw of Rome and Richard Osborne of Pebble Beach and Scottsdale, Arizona. He is the grandson of S. F. B. Morse of Pebble Beach.

He was graduated from Cate School, Carpinteria and attended the University of California at Davis for three years. He is working as a free lance writer.

The young couple will leave for Copenhagen next year when Virginia finishes school. They will visit the groom's mother (Mary Morse Osborne) who recently married the Prix de Rome prizewinner, architect Will Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. B. Morse left Tuesday for a ten day vacation in New York.

Korean Assignment For Peace Corps

In a letter from Korea to her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick C. Dowling of Carmel, Gail, who was married last summer to John Givens, writes that their permanent teaching assignment is Pusan, the closest spot to Japan. It is a resort area without much snow, with many beaches.

They are living with a "great family" in a huge house in the country, however there are no chairs and no beds. The floors downstairs, called "ondul" are sheathed, while the five bedrooms upstairs are covered with Japanese mats. Shoes are removed before entering. They feel fortunate to have been sent mattresses and blankets as there are no heaters.

There is little water due to the worst drought in 40 years. They can draw water only two hours every two days, but the public baths are open. The bathroom is outside.

Their classes are large, 60 giggly children, each. There are many English teachers who begin the day by bowing to the principal and then to each other.

They were met Seoul by a band, given corsages and songs of welcome. She ends her letter: "Aren't we lucky?"

Far East

Mr. and Mrs. C. Mark Thomas are traveling in the far east following attendance at the American Society of Travel Agents convention in Athens, Greece.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry von Teuber

National Sing-Out Director Marries

A Carmel Honeymoon followed the recent wedding at Christ the King Church in Hollywood of Miss Mary Forrester Eastman and John Henry von Teuber. A garden reception was held at "Eastholm", the Hollywood home of the bride's grandfather, George L. Eastman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Eastman Jr. of Hollywood. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Eugene von Teuber of San Francisco and Carmel, and the late Baron von Teuber, of an Austrian family.

He is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Galloway and Mr. Mrs. John Grissim of Carmel. Timothy Galloway, his cousin, served as an usher, as did Anthony, his brother, and Eugene, another brother, as best man.

He and the former Miss

Eastman have worked extensively with Moral Re-Armament in France, England and India. The bridegroom is a programming director for the three national casts of the Sing-Out "Up with People". Concerts are planned for Sunset Auditorium December 6, 7 and 8.

Carmel Art Modes

By Louise Cook

"Barns at Volcano" is a water color painted by Elise de Celles Beaton, long time member of the Carmel Art Association. She is having a one man show at The Town House, Lincoln and 7th. this month. Her paintings, mostly in water color, are of far western scenes, Sierra Mountains, abandoned mining settlements and ghost towns.

Mrs. Beaton paints with discernment and a practiced eye, successfully eliminating unnecessary detail. Her palette is lively and pleasing.

After retiring in 1959 from teaching Latin and French at Carmel High School she started painting seriously. This was a great loss to the students of language but an added asset to our art community.

MPC Exhibit

Currently on exhibition in the Monterey Peninsula College library are paintings and collages by MPC art instructors Alex Gonzales, Robert Nelson and Joseph Ataide and glass sculpture by Joseph Hysong.

Nelson's works are some of those achieved during a sabbatical leave last year.

Also showing are "A View of Peninsula Artists," which includes two display cases of crafts by Dennis Wagner, Jeanne Inwood, Susan Wagner, Robert Grabowski, Joseph Hysong and Studio Weavers; floral decorations by Mrs. DeForest Sweeney; and a painting by Willard Hunter, a student at Portola Junior High School.

On display from the college permanent collection are paintings by William A. Rabinovitch and the late Abel Warshawsky.

Dooley Exhibit

Helen B. Dooley is exhibiting paintings in a one man showing at the Aptos Art Center Gallery during the month of November.

- Furnished Models open 11-6, 7 days a week

This development of individually sited, handsome Garden Homes, brings the concept of relatively maintenance-free leisure living to buyers on a heavily wooded nine acre site. Pebble Beach Golf Links, Spyglass Hill Golf Course, Cypress Country Club, the Seventeen Mile Drive, world famous Del Monte Lodge, and the beautiful Beach Club are within five miles of the site. Carmel, historic Monterey, Pacific Grove, Carmel Valley, the jet served Monterey County Airport, and the awe inspiring Big Sur country are all within minutes.

This program will appeal to both the "weekenders" or second home buyers and also to the year-round residents who no longer are interested in yard work and exterior maintenance, but who prefer to spend their leisure time enjoying the many pleasures of the Monterey Peninsula.

The homes have been designed to provide large entertaining areas, attractive modern kitchens, luxurious dressing and bath areas, large bedrooms, ample closets, attached two-car garage, fireplaces, and many other fine features.

Country Club Gate will be surrounded by a scenic forest greenbelt in perpetuity and will be a charming, sealed, park like area. The ground is being leased from Del Monte Properties on a long term basis (98 years), and the monthly ground rental per unit will be nominal. All exterior maintenance and garden up-keep will be contracted for and each home owner will pay his share of the cost to the condominium association.

"Pennsylvania Barn in California" is an egg-tempera in the private collection of Mr. & Mrs. Jerry Miller of New Jersey. "Wind From The South" (our cover picture) is an oil painting in the private collection of Mr. & Mrs. James Frew of Burlingame. The paintings are the work of James Peter Cost who has acquired a reputation as one of the superior artists of Carmel. His paintings are in private collections from coast to coast. Soon, one of his seascapes will appear on the cover of a popular magazine.

Mr. Cost is most noted for the painterly fashion of his marine oils. He shows his versatility in other works such as his tactile approach to nostalgic farm scenes in egg tempera.

Mr. Cost just recently returned from a painting commission in Hawaii, and is now at work in his Carmel Highlands home. The Cost gallery is in Su Vecino Court on Dolores St.

Halt . . . Who Goes There?

A Carmel realtor recently bought a city lot on which stood a small frame house, but on which the realtor planned to build a commercial structure.

On a day he was out of his office, two men dropped by, one unknown to the realtor's woman assistant, the other recognized only as someone she had frequently seen. The second caller displayed a bill of sale at which she briefly glanced.

"Your boss," the man explained, "gave me the house he took down on that lot he bought. I came to tell him I'm ready to haul it off and rebuild it."

"Oh, if you don't have a lot to put it on," the woman offered, "I have a LOVELY one just right for that house!"

Not until he could stop laughing did he tell her, "I'm Stuyvie Fish. I'm rebuilding it on my Valley ranch for my foreman."

Her real estate enthusiasm still running strong, the woman turned to Mr. Fish's companion, "Could I interest YOU in one of our choice lots?"

More laughter, and then the answer: "I'm Mr. Odello you know, Odello Brothers."

"Oh," the lady managed, "Artichokes," and she laughed too. E.B.

Thanksgiving

It's the dressing that distinguishes the Thanksgiving turkey. In many families it is prepared from a time-honored family heirloom recipe and becomes a part of the holiday tradition. This year in Carmel, let's try an intriguingly new dressing which may well become a favorite way to stuff your turkey . . . roast capon . . . duck or goose. To us, however, Thanksgiving means turkey and pumpkin pie. The rest of the menu is variable but never dispense with the American twosome of turkey and pumpkin pie!

Roast Turkey with Intriguing Dressing
One 10-lb. turkey (ready-to-cook); 1 cup butter; 1/2 cup chopped onion; 1 1/2 cups, each, chopped celery and walnuts; 4 cups Graham cracker crumbs; 2 cups cooked long grain and wild rice; 1 cup raisins; 1 tsp. margarine leaves; 1/2 tsp. ground black pepper; 2 tps. salt or to taste; 2 eggs, lightly beaten with work; 4 tpsps. all-purpose flour; 1/4 tsp., each, ground allspice spice and cloves; 4 cups apple cider or juice.

Wash and dry turkey very well inside and out. In 1/3 of hot butter, saute onion, celery and walnuts for 10 minutes. Remove from heat. In large bowl combine next 5 ingredients with half the salt; add vegetables and eggs. Toss lightly with a fork; spoon stuffing into neck cavity. Bring skin of neck over back; fasten with skewer. Spoon stuffing lightly into body cavity. Close cavity with skewers. Surplus stuffing may be heated with left-over turkey. Bend wing tips under body and tie ends of legs together. Place turkey, breast side up, on rack in shallow roasting pan. Brush with remaining melted butter. Roast, uncovered, in a preheated moderate oven (350 F.) about 4 hours. Baste occasionally with pan drippings. Remove skewers and keep bird warm on serving platter. Pour drippings from pan; return 4 tpsps. Stir in flour, spices and remaining salt. Blend until smooth. Gradually stir in apple cider; bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Reduce heat and simmer 5 minutes longer. This is known as Cider Gravy to which you may add chopped cooked giblets. Surround turkey with scalloped orange cups filled with cranberry sauce. Makes 12 to 14 servings.

Sherry-Pumpkin Pie

Three egg yolks; 1/2 cup sugar; 1 cup canned pumpkin; 1/2 cup light cream; 1 tsp ground cinnamon; 1/2 tsp ground ginger; 1/2 tsp. salt; 1 env. plain gelatin; 1/2 cup California sweet sherry; 2

1/2 cups butter; 1 tsp. vanilla; 3 egg whites; 1 baked, cooled pastry shell. Serves 6-8.

Beat egg yolks; beat in sugar. Combine with pumpkin, cream, spices and salt. Cook over very low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens (or, cook over boiling water in double boiler). Soften gelatin in sherry; dissolve in hot pumpkin mixture. Blend in butter and vanilla extract. Chill until mixture thickens. Beat egg whites stiff but not dry; fold into filling. Mound in baked pastry shell; chill firm. Garnish or serve with whipped cream as desired. Bake the pastry shell in a 10x1-inch tart pan or a 9-inch pan. Glasses of sweet sherry served along with the pie will intensify the subtle flavor of the filling. Children will enjoy apple juice instead.

REPORTS FROM RLS

By Chandler Meloy

Sports and Debate Highlight Week

The Stevenson Harriers again dominated the C. A. A. Cross Country Championships, winning the title for the third year in a row while their soccer brethren were winning a spectacular game against York school for the "Shinguard" Trophy this past Friday.

Cross country, that long grinding sport that covers two miles of running "over hill and dale," has had a strong place in the school the past three years as the Varsity has run-up a record of 49-1 dual meet scores. The JV's are undefeated this season with an 18-0 record. Stars at the C. A. A. championships were Mark Stevenson, running his usual steady and winning race, followed by the surprise of the year Tom Brown, who has steadily improved from 7th position to #2 last week. Don Hicok, Mark Farber and Bob Bardin also ran fine races to share in the team victory. JV's John and Joe Todd, mainstays all year, were helped by fast moving Greg Guistina, Mike Bohman and Art Lara. Reserve Jim Russell was outstanding for the year, along with help from Barry Nathan and Piere Saviers.

The soccer match, held on the Stevenson field, was charged with excitement from the opening whistle. R. L. S. has previously dropped a 4-3 game to York and this game was to decide the "Shinguard" (Most goals in two games) Trophy and the Monterey Prep School Championships. For three periods the game remained a tie, and well into the fourth period. With one minute remaining Robert Yung took an angle shot from the right side and scored, so Stevenson won the game. The game also gave R. L. S. the Coast Athletic Championship. But the "Shinguard" Trophy was still undecided as was the Monterey County Championship. One overtime was completed with both teams playing tremendous defense. Then into the second overtime period. Minutes ticked by and it looked like a third period would be needed. Then, like a movie climax, with just five seconds to go, Peter Funston alighted by the defense and booted home the magic goal to win it all.

Third sporting eventing of the day was in Water Polo, where the team lost at Lynbrook by 16-11 to end their season with a 3-3 record. John Urist made six goals for R. L. S. to keep his scoring title for the year. Led by David Inks with five goals, the JV's also dropped their last match of the year by 24-10. The team spirit was high, and cries of "next year" are "already being sounded."

Big Debate Tournament On Sunday

Stevenson will host the Pacific Forensic League this Saturday in a regular league debate tournament. The Winston Churchill Forensic Club will sponsor as Tournament Chairman Bruce Decker promises a fine program. The public is welcome to attend or to participate as judges. The final rounds will be held in the afternoon, and several distinguished citizens from Carmel will be judging including Mr. Gunnar Norber, Mr. Eben Whittlesy, Mr. Tom Brown and Rev. Keppel Hill. Anyone wishing to judge may call the school at 624-5100.

Thanksgiving Service

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Carmel, will hold a thanksgiving service, open to the community, in the church edifice on Monte Verde near Sixth, Thanksgiving morning at eleven o'clock. Friends, neighbors, and the public are especially invited.

This service is a traditional one in Christian Science churches throughout most of the world. Branch churches in South America, Europe, Asia, and the Near East will observe the American Thanksgiving Day, November 23.

A specially prepared "Thanksgiving" lesson-sermon will be read at all these services. It will include passages from the Bible and the "Science and Health with Key Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy. At the close of the lesson, the meeting will be opened for expressions of thanksgiving and gratitude from the congregation, for divine healing, comfort, and guidance.

Keynote for the service will be a Golden Text from Psalms: "O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise."

Related readings from the Christian Science textbook will include this passage: "Are we really grateful for the good already received? Then we shall avail ourselves of the blessings we have, and thus be fitted to receive more. Gratitude is much more than a verbal expression of thanks. Action expresses more gratitude than speech" (Science and Health, p. 3).

The congregation will join in hymns, accompanied by Bernice Holyoake, organist. The church soloist, Norma Jean Hodges, will sing "Thanks be to God," by Dickson, Raymond McGill, First Reader, and Mrs. Dorothy Oates, Second Reader, will conduct the service.

In accordance with longstanding practice, no collection will be taken at this special service.

Your chance of survival is five times greater if you stay inside the car. Thousands of deaths and serious injuries are caused by being thrown from the car... being dragged or run over by another vehicle... or being run over by your own vehicle.

"Soul and Body" is the subject of Sunday's Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science churches.

THOMAS JEFFERSON His Religious Views

"Had the doctrines of Jesus been preached always as pure as they came from his lips, the whole civilized world would now have been Christian. I rejoice that in this blessed country of free inquiry and belief, which has surrendered its conscience to neither kings nor priests, the genuine doctrine of only one God is reviving, and I trust that there is not a young man now living in the United States who will not die a Unitarian."

Unitarianism, insisting upon individual freedom of belief and the use of reason in religion, is today attracting more members than ever before.

Here is a religion, unclouded by creed and dogma, that seeks answers to man's problems in the living now. With Jefferson, it is "against every form of tyranny over the mind of man," be it political, social or religious.

Chest Residential Drive Started

Marty Kline, Community Chest residential chairman, said the drive, begun November 6, "was progressing as well as can be expected with the shortage of workers."

Mrs. Martin Irwin and Miss Gertrude Rendtorff are co-community chairmen. A partial list of Carmel Captains includes: Mrs. Stoddard P. Johnston, Mrs. H. F. Bourdeaux, Mrs. James P. Ryan, Mrs. Clyn Smith, Mrs. Robert Price and Mrs. Fred Terman. A large force of volunteer workers has been recruited but additional help is needed. Persons willing to contact neighbors or other areas are urged to call the Chest office: 372-8026.

About a third of the goal has been reached, Mr. Kline said. Boy Scouts are delivering door knob packets in areas not covered by volunteers.

Although Community Chest programs and services are provided for the least fortunate members of our society, there are activities, such as Boy and Girl Scouts, Visiting Nurses, which benefit individuals and families of any economic level.

A seat belt can help keep you from being knocked unconscious... your chance of escaping if the car catches on fire or goes into water is multiplied hundreds of times.

Four Bedrooms Or More

$39,500 — Carmel

Each of the 4 bedrooms in this house has a built-in desk. There's a family room, too. Washer-dryer is located in the bedroom wing which is a great arrangement when you have several small youngsters. And you can watch those youngsters walk to the close-by school, too. In Carmel's "banana belt" — the best family-size home on the market under $40,000.

$42,500 — Carmel

4 or 5 bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths, artist's studio which would be a great playroom. Big, fully enclosed yard, very attractive, but planned to take a beating from fun-use by children (who will also probably spend a lot of time in the branches of the wonderful old oak tree). Excellent financing. Move in by the holiday season.

$47,500 — Carmel Hi Area

4 bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths, 2 on a lower floor with its own fireplace and separate entrance. (Add a private phone and you give your teen agers Heaven!). There's a great family room for entertaining, too, and view deck with wide Valley views. It's a friendly shake-roof, used-brick, comfortable looking place to come home to!

$65,000 — Rancho Canada

Such a perfect family area out in the sunshine, and a great family home therein! 4 or 5 bedrooms, 3 baths, family room with its own fireplace, a big enough service porch, and ALL the other refinements a good contractor building for his own large family would put in. Only 2 years old.

$67,500 — Carmel Valley

4 beautiful bedrooms, 4 beautiful bathrooms, separate guest house with its own adorable kitchenette, exquisite decorating and taste in carpeting, draperies, wall coverings. Add interesting architectural details and a central location to Valley activities and you have a fine family home on 1 1/2 acres — room for the horse, of course!

$67,500 — Country Club

Now THIS house is an old house, old Spanish to be exact, and you can have at least 5 bedrooms, 4 baths plus play rooms, and you can have two whole lots for play space. (Sell off one later when the kids are grown). Grownups in the family will fall for the white water ocean view and the lovely outlook over the golf course. A great home for the tradition-minded family.

$110,000 — Carmel Valley

A post adobe on top of the world, quite inconvenient for schools (school bus 3 miles below) and that's what keeps it so wonderfully secluded and lets you feel hundreds of miles away from town, even though it is only 3 miles actually. For the back-to-nature family who wants a Very Modern home, this is for you. (Separate guest house in addition to the 4 bedrooms, 3 baths, by the way).

"PROGRESS IN CARMEL"

BUY A HOME NOW:

PRICES WILL INCREASE WITH

GREATER PROGRESS

HAWAII AT HOME. It is unnecessary to travel two thousand miles to enjoy the exotic beauty of Hawaii. Just walk three blocks south of Ocean Ave., and there create your own Island retreat by use of tropical plants in the large enclosed lanai and on the spacious secluded patio in the dappled shade of a handsome oak tree.

Of course, there is a big living room with a beamed ceiling and Swedish fireplace, a formal dining room, kitchen as modern as tomorrow, two oversize bedrooms each with bath, and attached double garage. As an extra bonus, two more rooms with bath and outside entrance, perfect as teen-agers' "pad," artist's studio, privacy for visiting relatives or a source of some welcome "pin money". FIRM price, $42,500, and no telephone information, please. Call for appointment. This is a BARGAIN.

ESTABLISHED INCOME

PENDING YOUR MOVE TO CARMEL. Not quite ready to retire but want to buy before prices go higher? This close-in, beautifully remodeled three-bedroom older Carmel home, leased at $175 until December 1968, together with quaint three-room guest cottage rented for $100 per month, constitutes a rare opportunity for the "future Carmelite" who might use the Guest House as a weekend retreat until ready to retire and occupy the main house. (Then supplement his income by renting the guest house which has a real kitchen). $45,000 with appreciation potential practically guaranteed by condition and location. Again, no telephone information, please. Call for appointment.

WHERE DOES CARMEL BEGIN AND END? Certainly not at the city limits. The wonderful tenants from the East who occupy this ultra-modern, delightful three-bedroom home get their mail in Carmel and incidentally pay $300 per month for the privilege of enjoying occupancy of this choice home) regard themselves as confirmed Carmelites. As proof of this they have purchased a somewhat smaller home and will vacate Dec. 1.

This is your chance to buy one of the most desirable, almost new homes in Carmel Riviera, with three bedrooms, dining room, modern kitchen, living room with picture windows that take advantage of a sweeping ocean view, and a back-drop of mighty mountains. Modern throughout, luscious wall-to-wall carpeting, custom-made draperies, crystal chandelier, marble trimmed fireplace... everything for comfort, convenience and dignified living. Owner will consider all reasonable offers (we suggest $59,500) and will carry loan at 6 1/2% for buyer who makes 20% down payment and has good credit rating. What more could one ask?

GUNNAR NORBERG

WILLIAM SEFTON

MAYOR STEVE GRANT

EBEN WHITTLESEY

HERBERT BLANKS

Perplexing problems loom before the City Councilmen of Carmel, and these elected officials of the City try hard to sort the facts, listen to the appeals of the citizens, contemplate the overall picture and finally act in the best interest of the City. It isn't easy to answer such complex questions as how to handle the lodging houses in the R-1 district . . . nor is it simple to decide if Sunset Center should be rezoned . . . but they put in long hours trying to do what is best for Carmel.

Residential Zoning

revision to cover the points he made that evening.

Councilman Gunnar Norberg was in whole-hearted support of returning the ordinance to the commission and said, "We've waited this long, a little longer won't hurt. There's no sense in passing something that has so many questions surrounding it."

Councilman Eben Whittlesey moved that the first reading of the ordinance be adopted and the only negative vote came from Gunnar Norberg. On this basis, a second reading is required after five days, then thirty days later it becomes a law.

November 21 the first of two hearings on changes for Sunset Center zoning will be held at 8 p.m. at the Council Chambers.

Incidentally . . .

Last week former Alabama Senator Bob Wilson met with members of the press at the Studio Theatre in Carmel in an informal question-answer period concerning the running of George Wallace for President.

Wilson says that this 48 year old former Attorney General, Circuit Judge and Governor of Alabama believes that the government should be responsive to the people's wishes rather than the people responding to the Government's wishes. He said that Wallace's stand is definitely NOT based on the segregation issue, but rather on State's Rights. "The Government is too big" he said, and they can't handle what they have now.

Wilson added that Wallace is not sympathetic to anyone who is sympathetic to the enemy . . . that peaceful demonstrations are within the law, but that unlawful demonstrations are objectionable . . . that he is against indiscriminately giving foreign aid to those who are not our allies.

The major question asked of Wilson . . . does Wallace have a chance to win as President. YES, answered the senator. By the way, Wallace plans to be on the Peninsula very soon.

Owners of the Butler's Pantry, Malcolm C. Burtwell and Douglas C. Dickenson, celebrated their first anniversary in business with a wine and cheese party which over 200 persons attended. The entrepreneurs originally opened their shop at Lincoln Lane Mall but soon moved to their present location in the Del Dono Court.

Councilman Herb Blanks, and Eben Whittlesey and Police Chief Clyde Klauermann were recently presented with a Pedestrian Safety Award by the California State Automobile Association. Carmel was presented this award for having no pedestrian deaths during 1966.

The Country Shop has finished its facelift and ready for Saturday business according to Clive Rayne, secretary and treasurer of Derek Rayne's men's shop in Carmel. Derek Rayne recently bought the Country Shop and has been involved in remodeling the store front.

No Action On Drug Use Taken

No action was taken by the Carmel School Board last night on the revised draft of the policy on supplying, possession and use of illegal drugs by students, because Dr. H. Bialek brought in an alternate wording of the policy which the board thought should be studied when Supt. Dr. J. Harris Taylor is present. He was absent on a speaking engagement in Southern California.

Final adoption was postponed also on the granting of high school diplomas to students who have for some reason qualified for them after leaving school.

The board approved a first reading of the revision of Board Rules governing organization (unions) to which certificated employees may belong. There are two organizations, one federal, one local, to which teachers have requested payroll deductions for dues.

The sale of a portion of Scarlett Road school site was authorized. Permission was granted the request for agreement with state bureau of pupil personnel services for vocational guidance study in the Monterey Peninsula area. Classified personnel were granted their request for a holiday the day after Thanksgiving. The request for use of Middle School facilities for the 1968 Monterey National Rugby Tournament in March, was granted with certain stipulations.

The next meeting date was set for December 13, the second date in both November and December being omitted because of the holidays.

MARKET COMMENTARY

There is still hope for the best.

Dow Theory and Stock Market Forecasts letter of November 10th. concludes "More and more bearish comments about the future of stock prices are appearing and while a new bear market could be in force, it has not been signaled under our interpretation of the Dow Theory. Until that happens clients should assume higher prices will be seen in a matter of time. Continue to buy and hold common stocks, protected by a reserve of 20%."
